1ST GRADE WEEKLY UPDATE

Week Three

We had our first full week of first grade! It seemed like a long week, but it went well. The students have been enjoying the nice days outside. Let's hope they last a little longer!

Next week, we begin our fall NWEA Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) testing. Our class will have our reading assessment on Wednesday, September 20 and our math assessment on Monday, September 25. Please be sure that your child gets a good night's sleep and a filling breakfast. Thank you!

Reminders

Please make sure to send a snack with your child each day.

Please send reading calendars back to school each week on Friday for me to see how reading practice is going at home. Thank you!

Notes from the Week

Reading

We are currently reviewing letter sounds, sight words, handwriting formation, and basic reading words that students learned in kindergarten. We read the story What Is a Pal? this week in our Journeys books and talked about friendship. Students learned that nouns are people, places, things, and animals.

Math

We are working on numbers to 10 in math this week. We have been covering number words, number patterns, and the terms more/greater and less/fewer.

Religion

Students learned how St. Joseph had great hope in God's plan for him by listening to the story of Joseph, Mary, and Jesus' flight to Egypt. We have been talking about the Trinity and how God loves us. In turn, God wants us to share His love with others.
